<?xml encoding="UTF-8">

225.7024-2 Prohibition.

Contracting officers shall not award, for an overseas contingency operation, a contract for fuel, in whole or in part, or derivatives of such fuel, that is sourced from nations or regions prohibited from selling petroleum to the United States. See FAR subpart 25.7 and the Office of Foreign Assets Control website at https://ofac.treasury.gov/sanctions-programs-and-country-information for prohibited sources.

Parent topic: 225.7024 Restriction on acquisition of fuel for overseas contingency operations.